- 25X1 1. In December 1951, about 200 German women and children with bags and 25X1 knapsacks were seen at the Timisoara station, on their way to Oradea 25X1 Mare for repatriation to Germany. Their husbands, mostly farm laborers and former SS men, were already in Germany. [redacted] [redacted] this was not the first group to be repatriated.
2. Applications for repatriation by German families must be submitted to the legation (sic) where they are decided upon by a commission after 6 or 12 months.
3. There is said to be a camp in East Berlin, where the repatriates remain for 8 or 10 days for interrogation before being sent to Western Germany.
4. The Germans are allowed to take as much luggage as they can carry.
